

Every Single Tredit Product is Backed by a Limited Warranty

We know that whether it's getting out for an adventure in your RV, using your trailer to get your motorcycle to some awesome mountain adventures, or hauling materials for work – Tredit has you covered. We strive to design, innovate, and build the best tire and wheel products on the planet. We obsess over every design detail and work tirelessly with our manufactures to ensure the highest level of products. We believe our products should provide you with excellent service and use in your towing experience. And we proudly stand behind this promise. All Tredit Tire and Wheel products carry a limited warranty to the original owner, with proof of purchase. If something took you away from enjoying your trailer – we will work with you to get you back on that adventure.

How to Make a Claim
